Description

A Self-Invested Personal Pension (SIPP) is a flexible pension with favourable death benefits that allows individuals to make their own investment decisions from a wide range of different sources, including (but not limited to) stocks and shares, Unit Trusts and OEICs, and both Commercial and Residential Property*. Edgewater Associates works closely with a number of different providers, based in the Isle of Man and UK, and together we can help you consider whether a SIPP is appropriate to meet your retirement needs.
